

The form below will be completed by each teacher participant at the end of the ten week professional development sessions. It is a commitment to develop a student-centered lesson/unit that fosters the 21st Century skills of Communication and Collaboration using a web 2.0 tool. The lesson implies a change in practice and a placement of the toll in the hands of the student.

The lesson itself will take place in the second semester of the 2009-2010 school. A PLP member will be assigned to groups of teachers either by tool, division or other criteria.

The lesson plan will be completed electronically and made accessible to all participants in order to foster best practices and the development of support and conversation within our learning community.

The integration plan and its results will be shared in June of 2010 with all colleagues.
